INTERDICTION FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

At the end of this course, students will:

- Be able to establish the status of a child who may be abducted or endangered.
- Know resources available to them and courses of action to take when encountering an endangered child.
- Be able to identify research supported indicators of an endangered child and a high risk threat to children.
- Know the type of questions that need to be asked for a victim centered approach.
- Have a basic understanding of behavioral patterns of both suspects and victims.
- Know how to articulate their findings that are supported through research.
